DELNET – DEVELOPING LIBRARIES NETWORK

DELNET-Developing Library Network, New Delhi is a major resource sharing library Network in India connecting more than 8100 institutions in 33 states in India and few other countries comprising of Universities, Colleges, R&D organisations, medical hospitals, etc. DELNET is devoted to the Modernisation & Networking of Libraries. It was registered as a Society on June 30, 1992. It is located in Jawaharlal Nehru University Campus, New Delhi. “Networking Libraries, Sharing and Spreading Knowledge” remains the prime motto of DELNET with which it is working relentlessly for past more than 30 years.

The main objectives of DELNET is to promote resource sharing among the Member-Libraries by collecting, storing and disseminating information and by offering networked library services to users; to undertake research in the area of information science and technology, offer technical guidance to Member-Libraries; coordinate efforts for suitable collection development; facilitate and promote Inter Library Loan and delivery of documents, etc. DELNET has developed Discovery Portal, Knowledge Gainer Portal and Vision Portal (Video Lectures). The portals have sophisticated features for advance knowledge discovery. It is a simple, single window discovery layer which encourages the users to explore the networked library/knowledge resources offered through DELNET in a feature-rich environment. DELNET is a great boon for faculty, researchers, scholars, students, etc. of Member-Institutions.

When is it Plagiarism?

There are instances when something is clearly intentional plagiarism - buying, stealing, or borrowing a paper from someone else. This includes:

- Copying a blog post or stealing an article from online.
- Hiring someone to write your paper for you.
- Copying a large section of text from a source without making it clear it comes from somewhere else through quotation marks or proper citation.
- Intentionally failing to cite someone else's work, to claim that the ideas and words belong to you.
- It is possible to plagiarize from yourself. In academia, if you repurpose a paper from previous class or write one paper for two classes without the instructor's permission this is plagiarism.

TYPES OF PLAGIARISM

- Verbatim (word for word)
- Cutting and pasting
- Paraphrasing
- Collusion
- Inaccurate citation
- Failure to acknowledge assistance
- Use of material written by professional agencies or other persons
- Auto-plagiarism

Author of the month:

Rabindranath Tagore

Rabindranath Tagore, the eminent Bengali polymath, is best known for his seminal work "Gitanjali" (Song Offerings), which earned him the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1913. This collection of poems encapsulates his spiritual and philosophical musings, touching hearts worldwide. Tagore's literary oeuvre spans novels like "Gora" and "The Home and the World," which critique societal norms and advocate for social reform. His prolific output also includes plays such as "The Post Office" and "Chitra," exploring human emotions and existential dilemmas. Tagore's impact extends beyond literature; he founded Visva-Bharati University and composed the music and lyrics for India's national anthem, "Jana Gana Mana."
